

LVMH debuts "It's Everyone's Business" series to highlight DEI commitment

December 26, 2023

More than 190 nationalities and people from four generations across 80-plus countries work in LVMH's 75 houses. Image: LVMH

By LUXURY ROUNDTABLE INTELLIGENCE

France's LVMH, the world's largest luxury conglomerate, has debuted a new video series that offers inspiring and moving snapshots of the diversity within its ranks worldwide.

This content is accessible only to members of Luxury Roundtable. We would love for you to become a member and enjoy the many benefits soon after. Please click here to enroll as a member of Luxury Roundtable. Already a member? Please log in.

MOST READ

1. LVMH debuts "It's Everyone's Business" series to highlight DEI commitment
2. Glenmorangie's latest Scotch whisky offering is homage to Tokyo's split personality
3. Report: Southeast Asia, India next luxury beauty growth markets in Asia Pacific
4. What are the most sought-after amenities, comforts and features desired in luxury homes heading into 2024?
5. Omega owner Swatch Group's UK court win against Samsung watch faces could redefine Internet trademark law
6. Altagamma opens next club in Tokyo to push Italian luxury in Japan
7. Columbia MBA students proffer customer engagement ideas to Loro Piana, Tiffany, Ralph Lauren
8. Limited seats – register now for Luxury Outlook Summit 2024 New York Jan. 17
9. Comfort is No. 1 aspirational luxury as younger consumers stress
10. Try this: Tesla and Airbnb's bottom-up thinking vs. national down

